About the State Examination & Hiring Process:

The first step in the State hiring process requires you to take a competitive examination for each separate permanent job classification. Examinations may be written, interview, or performance-based and are designed to test the knowledge and abilities required for the classification. After you take and pass a State examination, you are ranked and placed on an employment list for that classification. Once you are placed on the employment list, you can apply for job openings in that classification. For more information on the State examination and hiring process, visit our website at www.dfg.ca.gov/jobs/exams/

POSITION INFORMATION

Duties:

Fish and Game Warden Cadet is the recruiting and training level for persons interested in a career as a Fish and Game Warden. Cadets, under close supervision, participate in a Department sponsored Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) approved basic law enforcement academy. When you successfully complete the required academy training lasting approximately 30 weeks, you advance to Fish and Game Warden and become a sworn California Peace Officer. AS A PEACE OFFICER, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO CARRY AND USE FIREARMS. As a Warden, you are then required to successfully complete a 13 to 17 week field training program. Participants who fail to successfully complete the academy or the field training program are rejected during probation. Positions are located statewide with the Department of Fish and Game.

Salary Range: $3267 - $4278

The starting salary is $3267 per month. After graduation to a Fish and Game Warden as explained in "Duties" above, you advance to Fish and Game Warden (Range A $3581-$4698 or Range B $4271-$5642). In addition to salary, Fish and Game Wardens can receive additional pay differentials as listed below:

General Recruitment and Retention - $175.00

All wardens and other law enforcement classifications employed by the Department of Fish and Game receive an additional salary of $175 per month.

Geographic Recruitment and Retention

Employees headquartered and residing in the following 17 designated high cost counties receive a monthly differential of $220, $300, or $350 depending on the employee's classification as listed.

Alameda	Napa	San Luis Obispo	Santa Cruz
Contra Costa	Orange	San Mateo	Solano
Los Angeles	San Diego	Santa Barbara	Sonoma
Marin	San Francisco	Santa Clara	Ventura
Monterey

Fish and Game Warden, Range A	$220
Fish and Game Warden, Range B	$300
Warden Pilot, Department of Fish and Game	$350
Fish and Game Lieutenant (Specialist)	$350
Fish and Game Lieutenant (Supervisor)	$350
Fish and Game Captain	$350
Fish and Game Assistant Chief	$350

Longevity Pay

All peace officers having at least 17 years of State service receive a monthly differential based on a percentage of their base pay. Prior State service in classifications other than a peace officer may be included. Longevity pay is determined as follows:

17 – 18 years = 1 percent	21 years = 4 percent
19 years = 2 percent	22 – 24 years = 5 percent
20 years = 3 percent	25 years or more = 7 percent

Education Incentive

- Employees with an Associate degree or an Intermediate POST certificate are eligible to receive a monthly pay differential of $50 per month.
- Employees with at least a Bachelor's Degree or Advanced POST certificate are eligible to receive a monthly pay differential of $100 per month.

This education incentive applies to all law enforcement classifications EXCEPT Fish and Game Captain, and Fish and Game Assistant Chief.

Additional Desirable Qualifications: Ability to use word processing software on personal computers; ability to make minor vehicle repairs when service is not available; ability to safely operate fish and game vessels.

Make Sure you Also Meet These Conditions:

All applicants must meet the education requirements for this examination by the written test date.

Citizenship Requirement: Pursuant to Government Code Section 1031 (a), in order to be a peace officer, a person must be either a U.S. citizen or a permanent resident alien who is eligible for and has applied for U.S. citizenship. Denial of an application for citizenship shall result in termination of employment.

Disqualification: Existing law provides that persons convicted of a felony or convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence are disqualified from employment as peace officers. Such persons are not eligible to compete for or be appointed to positions in these classes.

You are disqualified from being employed as a peace officer under Government Code 1029 if (1) you have been convicted of a felony in this State or any other state; (2) you have been convicted of any offense in any other state which would have been a felony if committed in this State; (3) you have been charged with a felony and adjudged by a superior court to be mentally incompetent; (4) you have been found not guilty by reason of insanity of any felony; (5) you have been determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender; or (6) you have been addicted or in danger of becoming addicted to narcotics, convicted, and committed to a State institution.

You are disqualified from being employed as a peace officer under Gun Control Act (GCA) of 1968 as amended by the Federal Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act of 1997, which makes it unlawful for any person convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition. A misdemeanor crime of domestic violence means an offense that (1) is a misdemeanor under Federal or State law; and (2) has, as an element, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by a current or former spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian, or by a person similarly situated to a spouse, parent, or guardian of the victim. This definition includes all misdemeanors that involve the use or attempted use of physical force and is true whether or not the State statute or local ordinance specifically defines the offense as a domestic violence misdemeanor.

Use of "hard" drugs (e.g., heroin, cocaine, or hallucinogenic) subsequent to applicant's 18th birthday and prior to his or her twenty-third birthday, shall be grounds for disqualification from the examination unless 5 years elapsed from the date of the disclosed or revealed use of the drug. If any such disclosed or revealed use has occurred on or after the applicant's twenty-third birthday, he or she shall be disqualified from the examination in which he or she is competing until 10 years have elapsed from the date of the disclosed or revealed use. The disqualification period shall begin on the date that the drug was used, and not on the date that the drug use was disclosed or revealed.

Application for Examination Information: In completing item 11 of the Application for Examination, you may answer "NO" to the question "Have you ever been convicted by any court of a felony?" if (1) the record of such an incident has been sealed in accordance with Penal Code sections 851.7, 851.8, 1000.5, 1203.45; or (2) the record of such an incident has been expunged or is expugnable pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 11361.5, which pertains to various marijuana offenses; or (3) the conviction was under Health and Safety Code Section 11557 or its successor 11366 when that conviction was stipulated or designated to be a lesser included offense of the offense of possession of marijuana. However, you must list the conviction if you have received a release (per Section 1203.4 or 1203.4a of the Penal Code or Welfare and Institutions Code 1172 or 1179) or a pardon (per Section 4852.16 of the Penal Code).
